

Process flowchart to determine if an aquifer is a current source of drinking water

*"produce water from the aquifer " means it can produce from same aquifer or is hydraulically connected is not identified, determine whether there is a private domestic drinking water well and if the well would draw water from the proposed exempted area